SMITHING, SINGING & IMAGES:
THREE HIGHLIGHTS OF
SUDBURY CANADA DAYS

Three feature pastimes of the Sudbury Days celebration on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 14 and 15, in Bethel will be the Skillings family blacksmithing, the barber shop singing of the "The Hills-men" and old time photographs by Hutchinson Bros.

On Saturday evening, following the "River Drivers' Baked Bean Supper," The Hills-men Barber Shop singing group will be on hand with vocal entertainment, including that old favorite of barber shop quartets, "Lida Rose," typical of summer evenings at the turn of the century. The Hills-men, attired in old time costumes of striped shirts, black trousers and arm bands, will be singing in Bethel for the first time courtesy of Stan Fox.

Few old time activities were more fascinating to barefoot young boys than the whir of the blacksmith's forge and clang of his hammer on red hot iron. Albert Skillings and his grandson will provide a Saturday and Sunday afternoon matinee of smithing on the Moses Mason Museum lawn for those barefoot boys now turning a little gray with a new crop of curious youngsters.

Even though long dresses and high starched collars are now a part of history, through the images of Hutchinson Bros. photography, visitors of Sudbury Canada Days can take away a portrait of themselves as they might have looked 75 or a 100 years ago. At 4 p.m. on Saturday, a door prize drawing will be held on the museum's back steps. The winner will receive an "instant ancestor" photograph of him or herself from

APPROXIMATELY $5,000 TAKEN FROM BETHEL IGA IN LATE WEDNESDAY ROBBERY

The Bethel IGA was robbed of two money bags containing approximately $5,000 in cash and checks late Wednesday afternoon.

According to Bethel Officer Allen Afflerbach, two males entered the store at 5:45 p.m. While one was examining merchandise, the cashier noted that the other entered the manager's office located adjacent to the cash registers. After he came out of the office, both of the males walked out of the store.

Informed of the incident, another employee investigated and discovered a money bag missing from the safe. The police were then called by going to a nearby store as the IGA's phone was inoperable.

Local police described the two suspects as being 20-24 years of age; one 5 foot, 11 inches tall, weighing about 150 pounds with brown afro-style hair, wearing a brown shirt and blue jeans. The other was described as being 5 foot 5 inches tall, 135 pounds, with brown hair cut in a dutch cut and wearing blue jeans. It was believed that the subjects were on foot.

Support Hathaway
in Bryant Pond

At a meeting in Bryant Pond on July 29 a group of 71 concerned citizens discussed the possible consequences of a petition by Alice Johnson et al. (the Don't Yank the Crank) committee to reopen the Bryant Pond telephone case.

It was decided by a large majority to submit a petition to the Public Utilities Commission to dismiss the request, stating community support for Elden Hathaway's decision to sell his company and expressing satisfaction that the terms of the sale agreed to by Mr. Hathaway and the Oxford County Tel. Co. are in the best interests of all parties and the subscribers.

Following the meeting and during the week end 342 subscribers of the Bryant Pond Telephone Co. signed the petition which was presented to P.U.C. Secretary Charles Roundy by Mrs. Gayle Russell on Monday, Aug. 2.

On Wednesday, Aug. 4, the P.U.C. decided to postpone a decision on the appeal of Alice Johnson et al. to reopen the case until all the facts surrounding the sale of the company can be reviewed by the Commission.

In an evening candlelight ceremony on Saturday, July 10, 1982, Mary Ellen Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stanley Andrews of Bryant Pond, became the bride of Lonnie Hadley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Enlon Hadley Sr., of South Woodstock.

Elder William Menshausen performed the ceremony and Pastor Thomas Schroer offered the prayer at the South Woodstock Seventh Day Adventist Church.

The bride wore an ivory organza gown with a Victorian neckline, accented by an embroidered yoke with ruffled lace. The skirt had a double flounce around the hemline forming a chapel length train. She was attended by her sisters, Eleanor Andrews and Bethany Bean, as matrons of honor. Deborah Greene served as bridesmaid and Holly Jean Roberts was junior bridesmaid. Amanda Hadley, Heather Jo Roberts and Lori Anne Bean, served as flower girls.

Dale and Keith Hadley were best men and ushers included Walter Appleby III, Rick Farnum and Kenneth Pulsifer, Troy Ryerson as junior usher, Ricky Jeleski was Bible boy.

Before the ceremony, candles were lit by Lance Bean, Greg Hadley and Jeff Hadley. After the prayer, John Yates, accompanied on the organ by Anne Dungan, sang "He".

The candle ceremony highlighted the occasion as the parents of the groom jointly lit a candle symbolizing their son, Lonnie, and then the parents of the bride lit a candle symbolizing their daughter, Mary Ellen. Then the bride and groom symbolized their union by taking the candles and lighting the one top candle.

The reception was held downstairs at Ledgeview Memorial Home where a program was enjoyed. As the bride and groom were introduced, Peggy Postkus

NOTES FROMEvans Notch*White Mountain National Forest

On July 14, personnel from the Evans Notch Ranger District assisted State and local firefighters in containing a forest fire on privately owned land in Chaffham, N.H. The fire burned approximately six acres of recently cut blown down timber adjacent to National Forest land. The main of the past week temporarily lowered the fire danger; however, high winds of the last several days have elevated the danger again. Users of both National Forest and private woodlands are urged to use extreme caution when traveling or working in the woods.

If you like to hike, fish or enjoy pleasant surroundings, Evans Notch offers a variety of recreational experiences. July has been a very active month within the five developed recreation areas. The hot summer weather has motivated people to spend time at campgrounds or in the backcountry. A publication describing recreation opportunities on the Evans Notch District is available free of charge. You may obtain one from

OLSON'S TRAPPERS WEEK END PLANNED FOR AUG. 7-8

Two all-day programs have been lined up, starting at 9 on Saturday morning. It will include demonstrations, contests, displays, supper and entertainment by the Old Timers Band. Many scheduled events will interest the whole family, such as a dog show, a kids' fishing derby, music and refreshments on sale throughout the week end. Overnight camping will be available.

the Ranger Station or from Campground hosts.

The District welcomes Earle and Eva Rogers to Hastings Campground. They are Campground Hosts and will assist campers by providing information. We have also been fortunate to have Boy Scouts from South Portland, Maine and Belmont, Mass., assist with wildlife opening maintenance and litter cleanup.

The Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) program is in operation. The three enrollees are Michael Gendrolis, Lawrence Garey and Tamara Poland. Their projects have included wildlife habitat improvements, recreation maintenance, and various trail projects. One recent YCC wildlife project was the planting of seeds and grasses at the Paite Marsh impoundment. This action will provide food and cover for various species once the impoundment is allowed to re-grow.

Parke Clemons and Jody Shimamura have joined the summer trail and recreation crews. Both are students at the University of Maine at Farmington and are working under the College Work Study program.

People from our little Hamlet helped West Paris people celebrate their or our silver jubilee and the weatherman was on our side until about 8:30 p.m. when we enjoyed a thunder shower. The whole town turned out to watch the Parade which formed at Trap Corner and marched to the amusement field by the Town Office. One source of fun at the field was the Molly Ockett clank jail and it was a very busy place. It cost one dollar to put a person in jail for 15 minutes. A man from California tried to buy a pin at the jubilee. The ladies auxiliary of West Paris Fire Dept.; Phelps Poland, Gladys Ellingwood, Shirley Barnes, Joan Poland, Kemp Lamb were winners in the baby pictures contest. The suppers and dinner were sell outs. A very successful week end.

Judy McLaughlin presented a plaque to Selectmen Hugo Heikinen, Clarence Reid and Gordon Dougherty for their help setting up the jubilee. She also gave a plaque to Hugo Heikinen for his 25 years as a selectman.

KIMBALL MEMORIES

Many Bethel people probably recall the late Lawrence Kimball who taught at Gould and then for years at Bates as Professor. His son, Dr. Lawrence Jr. and wife reside at 372 High Street, Newburyport, Mass., where they are very active. He has a lively family practice, and this past year he has been training New England College of Osteopathic Medicine (Biddeford) students who spend a month in his office and also have hospital rounds as externs.

Dr. Kimball is on many committees at the hospital and chairs some. The family are members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church choir. Mrs. Kimball opened a very fine needlecraft shop on Main Street in Newburyport called Rad's Rijoux a few years ago and has many regularly scheduled classes in all types of needlecraft.

Their oldest daughter, Cathie, who graduated from Bates in 1980 has just completed her second year of medical college at Kirksville, Mo., and received a Fellowship in anatomy and ORIM Department so she will be teaching first, second and third year students while completing her own medical education by 1985 — she works one day each week at Planned Parenthood as an assistant, and at present she is arranging her elective rotations which will include internal medicine at Arizona and Pathology and surgery at Michigan, Family Practice in Washington, with Rehabilitation in Missouri and Pediatrics in St. Louis. She is secretary-treasurer of American Undergraduate Academy of Osteopathy.

Son Dustin, is a senior at Bates this coming year and is busy now submitting applications to medical school to also pursue the medical profession. Daughter Elizabeth is a day student (still living at home), at Governor Dummer Academy and very busy with both school and activities. She is a counselor in training at camp this summer, teaching swimming, sailing, riflery and drama.

Dr. Kimball graduated from Gould in 1948, and then from Bates and Kirkville College of Osteopathy and spent some years practicing in York and Portsmouth before moving several years ago to Newburyport. His grateful patients at the York Hospital donated funds for a room to honor him, and there is a suitable plaque.

America's energy dependence is a dream which has outlasted fading memories of gas lines and skyrocketing fuel prices.

But what price do we pay for self-sufficiency? This is a question that has taken on new significance in light of Interior Secretary James Watt's announcement recently of a five-year plan to accelerate oil and gas development on America's Outer Continental Shelf. The new policy would open up the entire U. S. coastline for potential drilling for oil and gas.

Few would argue against a reasonable, orderly development of our offshore energy resources as a strike against the energy blackmail we've suffered under in recent years. But other factors are involved in this decision. Environmentalists obviously are wary of the plan because of the potential for ecological disaster. Legitimate questions also have been raised by the nation's tourism and fishing industries, which depend upon good stewardship by man of the ocean's resources.

After examining the facts of the matter, I can only conclude that the new policy is short-sighted. It is highly questionable whether the policy meets the legal requirements of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act Amendments of 1978, which require that the size, timing and location of future lease sales be defined as precisely as possible to allow affected states and other interested parties an opportunity to review the proposed activity.

By choosing to open millions of acres on the Outer Continental Shelf in the name of streamlining energy production, the policy seems to violate the spirit of the 1978 amendments. The plan proposes that large "planning areas"—some totaling as much as 130 million acres—be made available for leasing. This approach flunks provisions in the law to provide site-specific environmental analysis of proposed leases, and prohibits its effective participation by coastal states in the pre-lease process.

In response to this policy, I've co-sponsored a resolution of disapproval in the House to veto the plan. Passage by the Congress would invalidate the plan if the

ALL W.E.S. STUDENTS INVITED TO WRITE OF VACATION

Aug. 2, 1982

Maine-Way.

O.K. all you students at Woodstock Elementary School write about your vacation! You may be in any grade. Let's hear it from you. Remember, send them to Joan Parker, Box 93, Bethel, Maine 04217. Thank you.

This is a "well" one from Nathan Richards, grade 2, W.E.S., who just happens to live right on the water's edge of Lake Christopher.

"I go swimming and I lay on the dock. More fun than even this is fishing. My favorite fish is trout. I caught one in Lake Christopher in Bryant Pond, Maine."

Thank you, Nathan. You wrote an excellent story. I will save it and your lovely picture for a scrapbook we'll be working on this school year.

In our mobile home park there is a swing hanging from a tree. It is in a nice central place, and everyone from the very young and up has tried it out. There also is a neat fireplace for us to "cook on" on. It is a mini playground down here. Last summer I rode horseback all around. Every year the birds return to us. Right now goldfinches are especially bright and abundant. Like little flashes of yellow they fly from bush to trees, back and forth busy as can be.

CYSTIC FIBROSIS BENEFIT TOURNAMENT WINNERS — A very successful 2nd Annual Cystic Fibrosis Golf Tournament was completed Saturday, July 24, at the Bethel Inn and Country Club. Among the winners were, left to right: Jim Lumney, second place; Jim Monahan, Bethel Inn golf pro; Robbie James, longest drive; Mary Hurd, chairperson; Phil Rolfe, third place, and Dick Hoisington, first. Thanks to the following Bethel businesses for donation of prizes:

Sunday River Skiway, Bethel Inn, Edelweiss Country Store, Prism's Pharmacy, Glidden's IGA, Bethel Spa Restaurant, The Brass Buckle and Fashion Basket, Bonnema Potters, Brooks Bros., Inc., Mothers' and Charlie's Place. A special thank you to the American Legion Post #81 for again sponsoring some of their members, to Jim Monahan for all his help, the Bethel Inn for use of their facilities, and George Forbes for his generous donation.

president agreed to sign the resolution.

Energy independence for the United States must continue to be our goal in the years ahead. But the fragility of other resources on the Outer Continental Shelf is not to be underestimated, and any opening of exploration rights should be approached with deliberation and care. In our state, as well as in many others, too much is at stake in terms of economic and esthetic well-being to do otherwise.

Egg Assistance: Egg Producers in Maine and across the nation have found foreign price supports to be a figurative fox in the henhouse in terms of their ability to compete with producers from Europe and Brazil for traditional Middle Eastern markets.

To combat the inequities, the United Egg Producers have formulated a plan which seeks federal aid in the form of a freight assistance program. I recently wrote Agriculture Secretary John R. Block to offer my support for the plan.

The proposal calls for the government to pay U. S. producers 20% of the FOB stored value of egg exports over a six-month period, totaling about $13 million. Along with enabling them to compete with other countries, the plan also would help balance the U. S. trade deficit, generate tax revenues and increase employment. As some totaling as much as 130 million acres—be made available for leasing. This approach flunks provisions in the law to provide site-specific environmental analysis of proposed leases, and prohibits its effective participation by coastal states in the pre-lease process.

WALKING WITHJesus Christ

Ever so many people reject God because of what their friends might say—fear of being left out of local society; no longer sharing in picnics, fun, business matters, hunting-fishing trips and sewing circles.

There's an experience of such written in the Bible. John 9—where Jesus had healed a blind man—not only could this man see but his spiritual eyes were also opened—Vs. 38—"The man said, Lord, I know Him." And he worshipped Him." Jesus.

Now there were Jews, Pharisees, common folk, who still did not believe in Christ nor that he healed the blind man. They questioned him—He who professed Christ as his Lord—"They threw him out."

— Mrs. Marjorie Jodrey, Corr. —

On Thursday night, July 29, a group of very happy baseball players returned to town from West Paris victorious as winners of the Northern Oxford County Little League trophies. They won over Bethel Red Sox who tied with them for first place during the regular season. It was a very exciting game with a score of 10-8. A great many parents, aunts, uncles, and grandparents attended to cheer them on to victory. This is the first time in a good many years that the Little League from town has come out as "number one". Congratulations go to Scott Chase, Bob Chase, Nancy Miller, Mike Miller, Ricky Mixer, Danny Thurston, Gary Williamson Jr., Robbie Shields, Ricky Gilks, Matt White, Wayne Wardwell, and the coaches, Don Mixer and Gary Williamson, Sr.

The town was saddened by the passing of its oldest citizen, Loyd White on Friday, July 20. Sympathy is extended to his relatives.

Miss Miriam Rand and Miss Marjorie Kelly, North Hampton, Mass., and Mrs. Delta Howard of Rumford were mid-week visitors of Miss Ivy Thurston.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Humphrey and Melissa, Manchester, N. H., came Thursday to attend the Little League play-off game at West Paris. They were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jodrey.

Arthur Thurston, a patient at Ledgewood nursing home, spent the week end with his wife, Mrs. Mary Thurston.

Robert Porter of Bath spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Agnes Porter.

Donald Wardwell came from Seabrook, N. H., to see his son, Wayne play in the Little League game on Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Akers and family have been visiting his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Akers, and family in Alaska.

Mrs. Ellen Greek has been substituting in the town office in Mrs. Akers' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Meissner and Gary spent one day last week at Canobie Lake Park in Salem, N. H., then went on to Ashburnham, Mass., and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hall and family. Mrs. Hall returned to Andover with them to spend a few days with her father, Howard Glover.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Reed, Enfield, Conn., are spending two weeks vacation at their camp on South Ann Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston went the Portland Jetport on Tuesday evening to meet their mother, Mrs. Elsie Hewey. She had been visiting three months with her youngest daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Berry, in Broomfield, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston attended the "Swinging Bears" of South Paris demonstration at the Oxford bean-hole bean celebration and won their "Bean-Hole Bean Badge".

Sympathy is extended to the family of Cedric Thurston of East Longmeadow, Mass., on his death. Also to his relatives in the area, Ann Bishop, Dick and Polly Johnston, Elsie Hewey and Marguerite Quim.

Don't forget Saturday, Aug. 7, is Olde Home Day. Is everyone's float ready? The Mollocket Mixers Square Dancers will have a surprise demonstration of the "Cane Crook Cloggers" of North Carolina at the Refreshment Break. Terry Campbell of Farmington is the caller. A good time should be had by all. Mollocket Mixers, don't forget to bring lots of food, as they expect a large crowd. Gerry Schechter of Wynn Hill Studios will be taking pictures between 8-9 for the dancers who would like their pictures taken.

Rev. Rust had as his sermon topic Sunday, Aug. 1, at the First Congregational Church, "The Ministry of Silence." Worship hour is at 9:15 a. m. through January 1983. Choir is in recess during August. Aug. 8 is Olde Home Sunday celebration with former pastors or wives of former pastors present. Coffee will be served in the C.E.B. following. Anne Fox and Marie will be greeters in colonial dress.

If you should come upon an auto accident be sure not to move the patient unless the patient's life is in danger. You could do more damage if you try to move anyone. Unless you have taken First Aid or are with any rescue service, call for the rescue personnel and try talking to the person, being sure the patient doesn't move.

SUMMER PLAYGROUND DRAWS TO A CLOSE WITH FINAL BIG EVENT

This summer season's playground program at Crescent Park School, sponsored by the Bethel Recreation Board, is drawing to a close, but not without some excitement.

Friday, Aug. 6, is the date set for the big event, Summer Playground Olympics, scheduled for 9 a.m. at Gould Athletic Field. All area children are invited to attend regardless of whether or not they attended the playground program. And there is no fee for this competition. Among the events will be: the broad jump, 440 race, egg-spoon race, bean bag toss, softball pitch, obstacle course, bathtime, basket toss, and watermelon eating contest. All entrants may choose the events in which they wish to compete. Ribbons and trophies will be awarded. Children must be on the field at 9 a.m., bring a lunch (lunch time noon to 12:30 sharp), and plan to remain the day, as the awards will be given at the day's conclusion, approximately 2:30 to 3 p.m.

Parents, relatives and friends, do come and cheer your young ones on. It means a lot to them. If rain, all events will be canceled.

UMO Skywatch

(Prepared by University of Maine at Orono Planetarium Staff.)

If you are always just too late to wish upon a falling star, the perfect opportunity to catch up with lost chances will occur Aug. 12 here in Maine.

Or that date the earth will pass through the peak area of the Perseid meteor shower (named because the meteors appear to come from the constellation of Perseus). At the peak of the shower an observer will be able to spot as many as 50 to 70 meteors an hour. The largest number of meteors will be seen near Perseus, in the eastern and northeastern sky, and viewing will be at its best after midnight.

Although meteors are often called "falling stars," they do not really qualify for that name because they are not stars. The word "meteor" is actually a Greek word which originally meant "phenomenon in the sky" and referred to such natural events as lightning, rainbows or snow.

Today that word refers to the phenomenon or object in the sky which causes a streak of light as it burns up in the atmosphere. Meteors frequently are debris left floating in space by comets as they cross the path of the earth's orbit.

When the earth passes that same area again in its yearly circuit around the sun, the debris left behind by these comets falls into the earth's atmosphere travelling so fast that air friction heats up the meteor causing it to burn to a cinder in a matter of seconds. Large fields of such debris are known as meteor showers.

Rocky flotsam from a comet is so plentiful in these areas that many meteors are located in a small part of the earth's orbit. Most meteors do not survive the air friction burning long enough to reach the earth's surface, but those that do land are then called meteorites.

FROM THE TOWN OFFICE

continued from Page One Town is, obviously, a very important part of our communications and economics picture. Therefore, when the Department of Transportation adopted the Local Road Assistance/block grant programs, there was a great deal of concern among Town officials and taxpayers alike. If we do not act quickly to manage our road pavement system and adapt to the new block grant changes, we might face serious budgetary ramifications and other unpleasantness in the near future.

Pavement management is a technically awesome field that is new to most of us; very few of our citizens are trained civil engineers. However, important lines of communication have been opened between the Town Office/Highway Department and D.O.T. highway engineers who have expertise in these matters. With their help in technical areas, we have commenced the development of a long range pavement maintenance plan for Bethel roads.

As an initial step, the Town Manager and Highway Foreman will be inspecting our streets collecting data relative to the following pavement parameters: ride quality (road roughness), skid resistance, rutting, and structural capacity. This data, with the help of state highway engineers, will be reviewed and each road rated and prioritized as to its maintenance or rehabilitation needs. Maintenance is defined as those activities such as crack sealing and pothole patching, necessary to sustain the integrity of the pavement structure. Rehabilitation is defined as those activities that restore the pavement structure in whole or in part to original condition. Bethel roads identified as needing maintenance and rehabilitation will be presented for consideration in the yearly budget process.

Studies show that maintenance costs increase as road serviceability declines. Every dollar of rebuilding costs spent at a road's "half life" will require an additional $4 cost for every year that renovation is delayed. In sum, we will not be in competition with the State or neighboring towns for the condition of our roads, but, instead, the structural integrity and serviceability of the roads themselves, which is the true measure of merit.

In other matters, Jeff Lowe was appointed a Special Police Officer. Jeff, a Police Academy grad-
